ESCAPED ATLANTA CONVICT CAPTURED IN MINNESOTA

Berillon System Leads to Identification of A. C. Knox

By means of the Berillon system of identification, A. C. Knox, a white convict, three times escaped, was located by the Atlanta police Monday in St. Paul, Minn.

The chief of police of St. Paul sent a description, a photograph and the Berillon measurements of the suspect to Chief Beavers, who turned them over to Berillon Expert Price. The latter immediately identified the man as A. C. Knox, sent up three years ago for ten years for shooting a druggist, Dr. Surber, in his store on the outskirts of Atlanta.

Since then Knox has escaped from the changing three times. His last escape was in May, 1912. His pal, H. G. Burton, sent up for the same crime with the same sentence, was pardoned two years ago.

Chief Beavers will send a man to St. Paul for the suspect. It was just a lucky accident that got the man, said the chief. "Atlanta seems to be too poor to pay $10 a year for the police department to become a member of the National Bureau of Identification, at Washington, D. C. This bureau, of which many towns 5,000 and 6,000 inhabitants are members, is a clearing house for pictures and measurements of suspects from all over the United States."

Only One "BROMO QUININE" was sent to St. Paul, Minn., on the day of the escape of Knox. (APR.)

GREEN B. ADAIR TAKEN SERIOUSLY ILL AT HOME

Green B. Adair, one of Atlanta's prominent older citizens, was taken seriously ill Wednesday morning at his residence on Highland avenue. The seizure was quite sudden, and due to a general breakdown, according to the physicians who were called in. Mr. Adair seemed quite well until Wednesday, when he collapsed without warning, and he has since been critically ill. Monday his condition was little improved, though he seemed to be no worse.

Uster Troop Movement Is Explained by Asquith

Premier's Reassuring Statement Creates Much Easier Feeling in the British Isles. Attitude Was Misinterpreted

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 22.—A much easier feeling has been created in the British Isles by the reassuring statement given out by Premier Asquith that the troop movements in Ulster had been ordered only as a precautionary measure for the protection of government property. The inference generally is drawn from the premier's remarks that the government's intentions toward army officers who did not desire to serve against the Orangemen have been misinterpreted. In some quarters it was believed that General Sir Arthur Paget, commander-in-chief in Ireland, had placed a much stronger interpretation on the government's inquiries as to the feelings of army officers in the Irish garrisons than was intended.

PRELUDE TO ULTIMATUM. He presented an ultimatum to the officers that they must serve or resign. Sir Arthur always has taken a serious view of the threatened refusal of officers to serve in Ulster. It is understood that he followed his public warning to them by a private intimation that their resignations would not be quietly accepted by the war.

General Paget, Brigadier General Hubert Gough, commander of the cavalry brigade at the Curragh, and other officers attached to the Irish garrisons, reached London this morning and immediately went to the war office to confer with Colonel John Seely, secretary for war, and Field Marshal Sir John French.

This conference was followed by a full meeting of the cabinet. Interest in the disaffection in the army was displayed in the house of commons today when the house was crowded to a statement from Colonel Seely, secretary of state for war.

EXPLANATION IS VAGUE. The communication of Colonel Seely was brief and vague. Some officers, he said, had informed General Sir Arthur Paget, commander-in-chief in Ireland, that they could not serve in certain circumstances. There was, he said, a misunderstanding and these officers had been ordered to remain in their regiments.

The movement of troops, he continued, was solely to protect the stores of government arms and ammunition.

Both Premier Asquith and Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, recognized the widespread anxiety for an exhaustive debate on the subject by agreeing to motion for a adjournment of the house, immediately after the secretary for war had spoken.

The action of the government in moving troops, Mr. Law declared, was foolish, as there was no new situation in Ulster nor any threatened outbreak.

He added: "It will be difficult for the prime minister to convince the house that with or without his knowledge some of his colleagues did not make these movements of troops as part of a concerted plan to provoke or intimidate Ulster."

Nothing declared Mr. Law, could save the army now but a clear declaration that officers of brave and ardent mood be enticed to engage in civil war against their fellow countrymen.

ASQUITH IS CHEERED. Premier Asquith rose to speak amid an outburst of cheering. He said that after Mr. Law's speech the country had been brought to the limit of its patience to be presented. "The duties of the army in relation to the civil power have never been contested. Any officer or private who refused to obey an order is liable to dismissal. As far back as December, last year, general officers of the army were in-

At the election of officers of the fifth Georgia regiment to be held at the armory Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Major Walter C. Hendrix will be named lieutenant colonel, vice Colonel Orville H. Hall, who was recently elevated to commandant following the resignation of Colonel Edgar B. Pomeroy.

This fact was known Monday morning when it was learned all opposition to the elevation of Major Hendrix there will be a vacant majorship, which will be filled by the election of one of the twelve captains of the Fifth regiment.

BLACK MINORCA HEN LAYS ENORMOUS EGG

Ben Lala, of 34 Dodd avenue, took another look at his Black Minorca hen Monday morning when he found a prize egg in the nest in his back yard. He wanted to ascertain which one was responsible for the big egg he found. The egg measured 12.5 inches around the shortest way and eight inches around lengthwise.

Mr. Lala has been busy Monday morning exhibiting his treasure and telling what he uses as chicken feed.

formed that it might be their duty to come to the assistance of the civil power and any officers domiciled in their area might be accused if they had been any intention for an aggressive move toward Ulster this would have been the lastest taken. The movement of troops are now concluded.

Colonel Seely was derisively jeered during his explanation. The whole affair is generally accepted as demonstrating that the army cannot be counted on to fight Sir Edward Carson's volunteers if such a contingency should arise. Opposition politicians declare this means the collapse of the home rule project, and express their belief that the government may soon relinquish office by its own choice.

Unionists Not Weakened. By Asquith's Statement

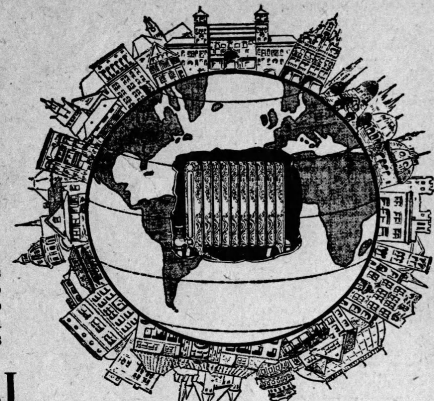

BELFAST.—Ireland, March 22.—The capital of Ulster, in which are the headquarters of the provisional government of the province, today is perhaps the least excited city outwardly in the United Kingdom. No troops have arrived here and none are expected. The residents look to London and to the Curragh camp for their news.

The statement issued by Premier Asquith last night declaring the movements of troops were of a purely precautionary character, has not weakened the determination of the Unionists to be prepared for all eventualities. When Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Ulster men, read it today he remarked:

"The statement simply represents the position the prime minister has been driven to take. The government has put itself in a ludicrous position. But its action makes no difference to us. We are proceeding steadily with our preparations and organization. We are not in the least affected by anything the government may do or pretend to do. We shall keep steadily in view our main object, which is to prevent ourselves being put by force under a government we detest."

COUPLE HIT BY TRAIN TREESTLE WILL RECOVER

Edward Huie and Mabel Bigby
Have Narrow Escape
From Death

Advised early Monday morning conveyed the information that Edward L. Huie, the young senior at Tech, and Miss Mabel Bigby, of 318 Spring street, who were tossed from a trestle near the plant of the Empire Cotton Oil company, north of the city, by the Sea-board Express, No. 5, New York to New Orleans, late Sunday afternoon, rested easily during the night and appear to be somewhat improved after their narrow escape from death.

As a result of the accident, it is thought by attending physician conveyed the information that Edward L. Huie's skull is fractured. Miss Bigby, however, is not so seriously hurt. She is suffering merely from a severe shaking up and extreme nervousness. It is not believed that she received internal injuries.

Miss Bigby is a sister of Mrs. Allen Marsh and of Mrs. Henry Clark, whose husband is cotton buyer for the Exposition Cotton Mills.

From what can be learned of the trestle, Miss Bigby had accompanied Huie to the plant of the cotton oil company that he might make an inspection of it to better equip him in the preparation of a thesis for graduation.

Returning to the city, they were walking over a railway trestle, when train No. 5, thirty minutes late, came into sight from around a curve. Both ran, but despite the efforts of a severe shaking up by applying the emergency brakes, and going but ten feet when the pilot of the locomotive knocked them off into a dry gulley.

When the train crew rushed to the aid of the couple and they were taken to the Atlanta hospital without delay.

LANE TO VISIT ALASKA AND PLAN FOR RAILROAD

Secretary Is Expected to Select Route While on Trip This Summer

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—To get first-hand information in connection with the construction of the government's railroad in Alaska, Secretary Lane is expected to visit the territory at a cost of $20,000. Secretary Lane, of the department of the interior, as the personal representative of President Wilson, will make an extended trip to Alaska the coming year.

Arrangements for the trip are already under way and it is expected the secretary will be accompanied by the committee of engineers to select the route for the proposed railroad, the members of which have not been announced by the president. It is probable Secretary Lane will decide on the route of the line while in Alaska. It is also expected that most of his time while there will be taken up with organization work regarding existing railroads and the study of problems relating to the developing of Alaska's resources.

SPRING HAS COME, FOR AUTOISTS ARE SPEEDING

County Policemen Make Cases
Against Nine Speeders on Sabbath Day

County Policemen Haydel and McCrory, during the less quiet Sabbath, say they found an unmistakable sign of spring on Peachtree road Sunday.

The sign of spring, they say, was an epidemic of speeding.

During the morning less quiet Sabbath they lodged charges of speeding and reckless driving against four autoists and five motorcycle riders.

In fact the two officers, who ride motorcycles themselves, were busy practically the entire day riding down Peachtree and serving them with court summonses.

Roosevelt's Sister Sees "Jedge Briles" in Action And Thinks It "Bully"

RECORDED BY ROBINSON AND MRS. DOUGLAS ROBINSON.

Mrs. Douglas Robinson, on Visit to Old Home at Roswell, Sits on Rostrum With Recorder and Is "Dee-light-ed" With His Methods

"Jedge, ah give dat nigger do hear 'im 'at bin honest to Gawd!"

"That don't help you, Roscoe," said Judge Briles, "10.75."

All women sitting on the rostrum in Judge Briles' court Monday morning leaned forward with a dawning smile.

"Can you remember where you heard that 'bully' stuff last? It's been a long time since it's been talked about, we grant you, and probably it's more familiar to South America than it is to North America now."

Well, the old family expression cropped out again Monday morning and it cropped out in the recorder's hand where Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of Colonel Roosevelt, who with her husband is visiting her ancestral home at Roswell, near Atlanta, was an interested spectator.

Mrs. Robinson has the Roosevelt smile and the Roosevelt good humor and the Roosevelt enterprise and the Roosevelt expressions. She says "bully" and "dee-light-ed" just like the Colonel.

"I have heard so much about Judge Briles," was the way she explained her coming to the city. "I thought I couldn't bear to leave Atlanta without seeing him in action."

SITS WITH THE JUDGE

So Monday morning she sat on the rostrum while the judge dispensed justice to the southern negro with one hand and words of advice with the other.

"Isn't it wonderful," said Mrs. Robinson, "that it perfectly wonderful I think he's just right! He's just what a judge ought to be. He's stern, but he's human. Oh—I'll just say he's bully and that will express it all right."

"Ed Lewis," called the clerk.

Ed was a "water" negro who was charged with fighting it out with George Harvey, black and fat, when a "box brown" was chased out of a box car the other night.

Mrs. Robinson took it all in with greedy eyes.

Ed protested his innocence vehemently. "Dat man was Gwage Harvy wat he do go jail Judge. Me? Why, Judge Ah wuzn't anywhere near dar. Ah wuz fifty miles 'way from dar. Ah reckon."

"I feel sorry for George," whispered Mrs. Robinson to her husband. "They all look like it. It looks like a colored girl was explaining just how she happened to get a bird with over her eye."

"I'm not sure," she declared. "He tried to get mah 'roxide, judge. Ain't gonna let no nigger git mah 'roxide." Mrs. Robinson was mystified. What was "roxide," she wanted to know. Somebody explained that peroxide was meant.

"How perfectly killing!" said Mrs. Robinson, in a gasp of laughter.

"How Henry," asked the judge of the next case. "Were you drunk?"

"Sho', now, judge, you knows Ah was drunk," grinned John Henry, and was fined $12.50.

"ONLY THIRTY-FIVE WITNESSES"

"That's the only perfectly truthful witness yet," said Mrs. Robinson. "He's wise!"

"He knows that honesty is the best policy."

She exclaimed, "how pitiful" when a white-faced, shaking drug fiend pleaded with the judge to be sent to the asylum, and again went off into gay laughter when a "drunk" explained that his new shoes made him stumble along the street.

"It all sounds so strange to me," she said. "This southern negro dialect. It's most awfully interesting to me, too, and out of it is simply killing. Don't you get fairly curly listening to all this, judge?"

Judge Briles smiled slowly. "Yes, I do sometimes. It makes me feel blue, pretty often."

"Will you stop for a picture?" Mrs. Robinson called. "The photographers tried to get me in New York, but I jince would pose. But this time—well, I will. Dee-light-ed!"

Mrs. Robinson and her husband are at the Georgian Terrace. They leave Monday night for Savannah, and later will return to their home in New York City.

MANY ENTERTAINED BY NOTED SINGER

Before a most enthusiastic audience, Mrs. J. W. Hurt, the noted soprano singer, rendered "Ave Maria" at the Kraft organ recital at the auditorium Sunday afternoon, and received such applause that she responded with three other songs.

The recital was one of the most successful held in some weeks. George F. Lindner played the violin obligato to Mrs. Hurt's singing. Miss Helen Harbord, new at the piano and City Organist, played the "Rhapsody" of Cole, dedicated to Organist-Kraft, also received much applause.

BURGERS SURPRISED, BUT GET OFF WITH JEWELS

Two Women See Negroes
Robbing Their Home on Courtland Street

City detectives are searching for two negroes who on Saturday afternoon secured $100 worth of jewelry by burglarizing the residence at 375 Courtland street, occupied by E. H. Fall, assistant general passenger agent of the A. & C. railroad, and by D. G. Wise, Mrs. Poll and Mrs. Wise, sisters, returned to the residence late in the afternoon and surprised the burglars at their work, but too late to save the jewelry.

When the two ladies walked in the front door, they heard running footsteps and by peering to the rear of the house were able to see two negroes running through the back yard.

Several rooms had been visited by the burglars, and the women were in confusion, showing that the negroes had started in to thoroughly ransack the house.

The movements of the two men were traced in the snow. It appears that first they rang the door bell, finding that no one was at home. Then going to a window about fifteen feet from the street they smashed the glass. After entering they secured a diamond brooch valued at $150, a diamond locket worth $100; a watch valued at $50; $15 in cash, and several sticks and other trinkets besides a large amount of wearing apparel.

Talked and Sang for Ten Years Without a Tongue; Man Is Dead

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 22.—Thomas J. McGuire, aged fifty-seven years, veteran theatrical manager, died at his home today of cancer. It was his love for cigars that caused the loss of his tongue. He smoked from twenty-five to thirty cigars almost every day for more than twenty years. Cancer of the tongue developed. One operation failed in March, 1904. Mr. McGuire died at his home at 100 West 11th street, New York, at 10 o'clock.

He was the last time and submitted to an operation in which virtually the whole tongue was removed.

He died at his home at 100 West 11th street, New York, at 10 o'clock.

A Million Dollar Discovery

For half a century Doctors and Druggists have said: "The man that can take the grip and nausea out of Polio-phobia or May-Apple Root will make a million dollars."

Polio-Lax is a May-Apple Root formula. May-Apple grows wild and our ancestors discovered that the root would release the bile that had become clogged or dammed up in the liver.

Dr. J. C. Merrett, a famous physician, says: "Polio-Lax is a popular remedy much used by those adverse to calomel and mercury."

It is sometimes called "Vegetable Mercury." It is from May-Apple Root.

It is agreed that the Liver is a strainer, taking the bile from the blood and converting it into a digestant for the bowels. When the bile clogs or dams up in the liver, it is said to quit acting. The truth is that it is so full of dammed-up bile it can't strain out the poisons thrown into the blood.

You can take Polio-Lax daily, and grow stronger every day. It is not a cathartic or purgative, but gently releases the bile necessary to Nature's own method of purification and assimilation. You may not be your brother's keeper, but you are responsible for your family. A box bottle of Polio-Lax will keep every member of your family in fine condition. Try it.

OUR ASTROLOGER

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

HOROSCOPE FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1914

Four kindly planets lead toward joyful thought and deed.

This is a lucky day, for although Saturn is in adverse aspect, Mercury and Mars exercise a strong influence for good, while Venus and Jupiter are also friendly.

The influences are fortunate for actors, sculptors, writers and orators. Mathematicians and schoolmasters should also benefit.

The mind should be alert, receptive and imaginative during this configuration. It is a favorable time to attend to educational matters, draw up contracts and make plans for future enterprises.

Advertising is subject to astral rule, which tends to bring large returns, the seers declare. It is an auspicious day for exploitation in public life. Women should take advantage of the aspect, for it promises much for authors and actresses.

Marriage and love affairs are fairly fortunate under this configuration. It is a lucky date for weddings and for foresting new acquaintances who may become close friends.

According to ancient lore, mediatists, milliners, dyers, weavers, gloves and all who deal in ornaments of clothing which women wear are peculiarly fortunate when Venus wields kindly sway over the inhabitants of the earth. Owing to the position of Mars in mid-heaven at Pöda, astrologers hold that China will continue to suffer from unsettled conditions for some time to come. Loss of shipping and foreign trade is probable.

A London astrologer finds the portentous promising for prosperity in the United States as the spring advances, but he foretells great fluctuations in railway stocks with large expenditures for rolling stock on certain lines. He predicts losses on the corn crop in the braskas, Kansas and other western states.

There is a fortunate omen for the Panama-Pacific exposition. Growth of international interest is indicated, and surprising gains are probable.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the prognostication of a busy year that brings many worries. Both men and women should watch their health. Those who are employed will prosper. Children born on this day will be industrious and trustworthy. Boys may meet with many obstacles and girls may have many problems to solve. As subjects of Aries with Mars at their ruling planet they should be ambitious and able to overcome difficulties. Many reforms are born under this sign. "MOTHER" JONES IS AGAIN UNDER MILITARY GUARD

Labor Leader Arrested in Coal Miners' Strike Zone in Colorado

WALDENBURG, Col., March 22.—After a week's freedom, "Mother" Mary Jones is again a military prisoner. In the coal miners' strike zone. The aged strike leader was taken from a south-bound Colorado and Southern train to be guarded by Captain H. C. Nickerson and lodged in the county hospital under military guard.

WAS NOT SURPRISED. "Mother" Jones is held incommunicado. Captain Nickerson left Trinidad last night under orders from Adjutant General John Case to arrest "Mother" Jones at Waldenburg when the announcement was made that she was leaving Denver for Trinidad. The militia officer ordered "Mother" Jones to alight with him, and protested against such treatment declared the strike leader, "But I am not surprised."

"I am acting under orders," replied the officer. "Well I'll get off," she retorted. John Brown, an organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, known as "Mother" Jones' body guard, who accompanied the aged strike leader, also left the train but was not arrested.

By Associated Press. DENVER, Col., March 22.—A week ago today "Mother" Jones came to Denver after a three-day imprisonment in San Rafael hospital. At the time she declared she was deported and vowed that she would return to Trinidad to continue to urge her "boys to fight and to encourage the aged strike leader. "Originally "Mother" Jones was arrested in Trinidad by Governor Ammons and Adjutant General Hanson, who desired it in view of her to be at liberty in the strike zone, where they believed her presence would incite the strikers to riot.

Attorneys for the United Mine Workers of America sought "Mother" Jones' freedom on a writ of habeas corpus, for which they petitioned the state supreme court to take original jurisdiction. This petition was denied, and immediately a similar petition was filed in the district court at Trinidad, and denied.

The day the appeal from the supreme court judge's opinion was to have been filed with Colonel Taylor, the national guard she claimed she was forced taken from her prison in Trinidad, so the appeal could not be heard, since she was no longer a prisoner.

If she is rearrested at Trinidad, attorneys for the mine workers said the habeas corpus proceeding would be taken up at once and the supreme court asked to reverse the decision, which gives the military the right to arrest and hold persons it deems objectionable to the peace of the state.

FRANK DEFENSE MAY PRESENT NEW TRIAL MOTION THIS WEEK

SHOULD BE MORE CAREFUL. "I hope the police officials will be more careful in future and not permit themselves to be imposed upon."

Burns would not go into any discussion of how he had been working on the case or what exact results he had achieved. He was positive, however, in declaring that the public would be satisfied with his handling of the case.

He stated that he would be away three or four days, but would not discuss his trip other than to say it would take him to Washington and New York. In the meantime Dan Lelton, manager of the New Orleans Burns agency, will arrive in the city Tuesday. He has already left for Atlanta, but stayed over a day in Jackson, Miss.

Guy B. Beedinger, of the New York office, will also arrive in the city Tuesday morning.

White Burns has consistently refused to state how many agents he has at work on the case, it is said they number only a few in the middle or last of next week, if by that time.

The detective declares he is investigating every angle of the case, regardless of how insignificant it may seem.

Leonard Haas, one of the attorneys connected with the defense of Leo M. Frank, left Atlanta Sunday for New York, and it is said he is making the trip on business connected with the case.

Just what the recently developed New York "angle" to the case is, attorneys connected with the defense refuse to state.

Rev. Fred Line Pleads For New Frank Trial

A new trial for Leo M. Frank was urged by Dr. Fred A. Line, pastor of the Universalist church, in his Sunday morning sermon at the line of Frank's trial the prisoner did not and could not have been accorded a fair and impartial trial, based on these points:

"The plea for a new trial for Leo M. Frank is not based on emotion," said Dr. Line. "It is based on reason."

"It is based on the fact that Leo M. Frank in the name of that justice which demands for every man the right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; which recognizes the sacredness of human rights and solemnly guards its forces; which transcends prejudice, vengeance, malice, hatred; which demands that truth shall prevail; and that all life shall be conserved to ends of human usefulness and divine service. I plead for a new trial as a man who loves men and who desires to see justice done, as a man who believes in men and in the power of the human heart and lives."

CONGRESS TO CONTINUE ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 22.—No suggestion has come to President Wilson from congress to have the anti-trust legislation postponed. The president told for such a postponement, but that on the other hand the program was rapidly being worked into shape.

UNCLE SAM'S GREATEST BATTLESHIP IS LAUNCHED

Giant Sea Fighter, Oklahoma, Glides Into Delaware River at Camden, N. J.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The super-dreadnaught Oklahoma, one of the largest and most powerful American battleships afloat, was launched today from the yard of the New York Ship Building company at Camden, N. J., in the presence of a large number of invited guests.

The giant sea fighter was given her name by Miss Lorena Jane Criss, daughter of the governor of Oklahoma, who broke a bottle of champagne against the great prow of the ship as the hull began to glide into the Delaware river. Miss Criss, carrying a large bunch of American Beauty roses, was surrounded by a dozen girl friends from Oklahoma.

Surrounding the christening party were Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, members of the congressional naval committee, United States senators Owen and Gore, Oklahoma; members from that state in the national house of representatives, state officials and other Oklahomans and naval officers and invited guests.

Eighteen Persons Seeking Nomination in Primaries Tomorrow

PATERSON, N. J., March 22.—The five Democrats, eleven Republicans, one socialist and one Progressive seeking the nomination of these four parties at the primaries in Passaic county, N. J., tomorrow for successor to the late Representative Bremner, were preparing today for the final canvass for votes in their respective parties.

This is the first election of national significance since the enactment of the new tariff and currency laws, and the Democrats are making every effort to win in the hope of showing that these policies have the approval of the people.

The primaries will be held tomorrow and the election April 7.

U. S. SHOWS BIG DROP IN IMPORTS OF STEEL

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A decrease of almost $2,000,000 or from $11,072,000 to $9,072,000, in the imports of steel into the United States during the first four months since the present tariff law went into effect as compared with the same period of the previous year, was revealed in statistics made public today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Most of this decrease occurred in the last month of the period in question, the January decrease alone being $2,500,000 as compared with January, 1913.

Decreases in imports, says the statement, are shown to have occurred during January. In nearly all classes of iron and steel except cutlery, plates and bar iron. Both Germany and the United Kingdom exceed this country in imports as well as in exports of iron and steel. The new tariff law, which took effect in the calendar year, 1913, to have been—United Kingdom, $145,000,000; Germany, $145,000,000; and United States, $24,000,000.

ed that Villa himself had shot the ranchman with a pistol.

The broad inference that Benton was stabbed is regarded as especially significant in connection with other information here that the constitutionalist commission, which investigated the affair, has found that Benton was stabbed by one of Villa's officers, who is expected to be tried for the crime.

Captain Yercovich's report also states that Benton went to Villa unarmed and to protest against the theft of his cattle. That finding also agrees with the statements of Benton's friends.

Brigadier General Bliss, commanding the border forces, reported today that in expectation of a battle below Guernero, Mexico, opposite Zapata, Texas, a detachment of troop 2, of the 14th cavalry had been dispatched from Fort McIntosh to Zapata.

Under Admiral Fletcher reported conditions in Vera Cruz and Tampico unchanged. Secretary Bryan said he had no information of the nature of conferences in which Mr. O'Shaughnessy had participated in Vera Cruz.

Asks for Release of Mexicans at Fort Bliss

By Associated Press. PEOR, Ill., March 22.—Judge Edwin W. Mack, of the United States district court, today opened the habeas corpus hearing for the release of 5,000 Mexican federal prisoners held at Fort Bliss, Tex., by the government. The judge stated the writ last week at Dallas.

The contention of the prisoners is that the United States has no right to hold them under any international agreement or law.

Under the Hague treaty, they assert, a country has a right to hold military men fleeing from another country. If they are engaged in an international struggle, not troops fleeing from internecine strife.

Mr. Wilson Denies Report O'Shaughnessy Will Resign

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Information thus far received by President Wilson indicates that the parley at Vera Cruz between Lind and General Porfirio Ruiz, Huerta's minister for foreign affairs, have not reached the stage of formal negotiations or definite proposals.

The president told callers to say that nothing important had developed. Incidentally the president denied the charge O'Shaughnessy would resign upon his return to the United States.

English Opera to Have Run of Twenty Weeks in City of New York

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 22.—Popular support accorded the long season of opera in English in this city by the Century Opera company, with performances still continuing, has enabled its management to announce a season of twenty consecutive weeks of nightly performances beginning September 14. The repertoire will consist of twenty operas. Two operas will be given each fortnight, the operas alternating from night to night during that period.

Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston will be visited by the troupe after its season of fourteen weeks by the Hippodrome Comique company, under direction of Andreas Dippel, presenting for ten weeks, the new Puccini operas of unannounced title, and French opera bouffe for four weeks.

less it were on account of ill-health and he hoped that would not be necessary.

Interest in official circles was focused almost entirely on the possible battle at Torreon. Administration officials do not expect that peace parleys or negotiations will crystallize until after the battle.

YOUTH IN OLD AGE Possible With Proper Care

A few generations back a man at 50 was considered old. Gray-haired, and waiting for death. Note the change today: at a meeting of the Medical-Legal society it was stated that a man of 50 ought to have forty good years ahead of him and, thus at ninety he is in the prime of maturity.

What if you have seen sixty, or even seventy birthdays—temperate habits, fresh air and exercise, with a simple diet and a sufficient amount of sleep will give you the best of health.

If perchance your circulation is poor, if you become run-down—weak and no appetite—nothing in the world will tone up those tired backsliding organs so quickly as our delicious liver and iron tonic, with a simple diet and a sufficient amount of sleep will give you the best of health.

We ask every feeble, discouraged old person in this vicinity to try Vinol on a small scale, to establish its value. If it fails to give satisfaction, Elkin Drug Co., Atlanta, Ga.

P. S.—Beware Sufferers! We guarantee our new skin remedy, Sacko Vinol, on request.—(Advt.)

"I AM NOW A HAPPY WOMAN"

Says Franklin Lady, Who Says She Has But One Regret After Many Years of Trouble

Franklin, Va.—"I am now a happy woman," says Mrs. Elizabeth Boone, of this town, "although for eight or ten long years, I suffered dreadfully with womanly troubles, and I had to lie in bed for three or four days every month."

I was in such condition, I could not do my housework, nor could I eat heavy or greasy food of any kind. I was a perfect wreck.

Some of my lady friends advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, which I did. I have now taken seven bottles, and am sound and well, can do all of my housework, as well as my laundry work. I am sure for 5 bottles of Cardui did me $100.00 worth of good.

I have but one regret, and that is that I did not commence taking Cardui 6 years ago. I would have avoided all that suffering, besides saving all the money I paid out for other medicines that did me no good.

Several of my lady friends are now taking Cardui on my recommendation and it is helping them.

If you suffer from any of the numerous ills so common to women, begin taking Cardui, today. It relieved Mrs. Boone after her condition became chronic. It will surely help you.

Try Cardui.

N. B.—Write to "Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Elkin's Instructions, and 6-page booklet, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.—(Advt.)
